PSBU SDG Policy: Inclusive Access to Educational Activities

Policy Statement:

Preah Sihamoniraja Buddhist University (PSBU) upholds the principles of equality, respect, and inclusivity in all its educational endeavours. The University is committed to ensuring that access to public learning opportunities, lectures, workshops, and academic resources is open to all individuals—irrespective of ethnicity, religion, disability, immigration status, or gender.

Policy Commitments:

- Establish and maintain procedures that guarantee equal access to PSBU's educational and community programmes.
- Ensure that all university communications and events promote diversity, inclusiveness, and non-discrimination.
- Provide reasonable accommodations to support the participation of individuals with disabilities or special requirements.
- Promote intercultural understanding through open dialogue, shared learning, and mutual respect.
- Review and update this policy regularly to align with national regulations, international human rights standards, and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG 4: Quality Education).

External Best Practice Benchmarks:

- Aligned with the UNESCO Convention against Discrimination in Education (1960).
- Reflective of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4.3, ensuring equal access to quality education and lifelong learning opportunities for all.
- Informed by international good practice from Commonwealth universities and ASIC-accredited institutions, reinforcing PSBU's global quality standards.
