Partnership and Collaboration Policy

Purpose:

To ensure that academic and institutional partnerships align with PSBU's strategic priorities and uphold quality and integrity.

Policy Statement:

PSBU engages in partnerships that enhance academic quality, internationalisation, and research collaboration while maintaining oversight and accountability.

Procedures:

- All partnerships must be approved by the Rector and recorded by the International Relations Office.
- Due diligence must be conducted on all prospective partners.
- Collaborative activities must include written agreements specifying responsibilities, intellectual property rights, and quality assurance mechanisms.

Review:

Reviewed biennially by the International Relations Office.
