1. Opening and Purpose of the Meeting

Preah Sihamoniraja Buddhist University (PSBU) held a high-level meeting on the “Progress of Training at All Levels of Preah Sihamoniraja Buddhist University” under the high presidency of His Holiness Samdech Preah Maha Sangharaja Bour Kry, Rector of PSBU. The meeting was attended by Vice-Rectors, senior monastic officials, H.E. Nguon Sdechpheapkdey, Secretary of State of the Ministry of Cults and Religions in charge of PSBU, university management, deans, heads of departments, officials, and relevant working groups, totaling 37 participants. H.E. Nguon Sdechpheapkdey welcomed the participants and highlighted the importance of reviewing the progress of academic training and strengthening the university’s leadership and management structures to support its continued institutional development.

2. Review of Academic Training Programs, Governance, and Faculty Leadership Requirements

The discussion focused on the progress and development of academic training across all levels at PSBU, including bachelor’s, master’s, doctoral, and international scholarship programs. The meeting noted significant progress in these programs in line with the university’s vision of building academic excellence. The discussion also addressed the practical needs of the university’s four Buddhist faculties, particularly the Faculty of Philosophy, Religion and Law, which requires additional monastic leadership to ensure effective administration and continuity. Participants further emphasized the importance of strengthening leadership structures based on professional expertise, qualifications, knowledge, experience, legal principles, ethics, and internal solidarity.

3. Presentation of the Progress Report on Training Work at All Levels

H.E. Nguon Sdechpheakdey presented a comprehensive progress report on academic training at all levels of PSBU. The report covered the development of bachelor's, master's, doctoral, and international scholarship programs, highlighting their continued growth and progress in accordance with the university's vision and mission. It was also reported that a student from the International Scholarship Program had been selected to represent Cambodian students in an upcoming educational study visit to the Philippines. In addition, H.E. Nguon Sdechpheakdey presented the need to strengthen the leadership structure of the four Buddhist faculties and proposed the appointment of Samdech Preah Tray Rattanavong Sachar Thou Sadar as Vice-Rector and Preah Dhammakavi Vong Norn Manavo as Dean of the Faculty of Philosophy, Religion and Law.

4. Approval of Leadership Reassignments and Strategic Roadmaps for Academic Sustainability

Following extensive discussion and consideration of the views and recommendations of the university management, the meeting unanimously approved the draft proposal for the appointment and reassignment of the two monastic officials to strengthen the university's leadership structure. The approved documents will proceed through the relevant administrative procedures and be submitted to the Ministry of Cults and Religions for review and decision. The university will also continue strengthening academic programs at all levels, improving management structures across faculties, departments, and offices, and enhancing the quality and sustainability of education in accordance with the university's strategic direction.

5. Closing

The meeting concluded with His Holiness Samdech Preah Maha Sangharaja Bour Kry expressing appreciation for the dedication and contributions of the university's management, monastic officials, civil servants, staff, and professors over the past 22 years. His Holiness encouraged all members to continue strengthening their professional capacity, knowledge, ethics, morality, and sense of responsibility. He further emphasized teamwork, cooperation, creativity, mutual support, and unity as essential principles for the continued development of PSBU and the advancement of quality education in accordance with Buddhist teachings.
